HIKE WITH JESSE. Friday December 12, 10 am - Meet at the north end of Pioneer Names TH, exploring northward up Hackberry Wash. Open forum to have questions answered, and share holiday greetings and camaraderie with fellow Trail Stewards!

TRAIL OF THE MONTH Pioneer Names - One visit requested to remove graffiti, illegal trails and the usual rock work realigning the trail boundaries encouraging visitors to please! Stay on the path.

Web Report (Sandy):

Just did a bit of a clean up of our News page and added a photo with a bit of verbiage about visiting the park in winter and that should there be snow, it is quite magical. Removed info about the road closures due to marathon and info about the flag display. Removed a few other things and cleaned up the entire page. If there is "news" you would like to see featured, please let me know.

Google analytics: Usage the last 30 days has been quite slow, much less than previous 30 days. Big drops on pages such as Events, Donate, Sign-in/Renew. It has been a quiet period for Friends with events cancelled due to weather and such and the slow December event period which explains that reduction. Should we send out a seasonal "ask" or "thanks for your help, see what Friends has accomplished" email within the next few weeks I would expect and hope for a spike in donations and/or memberships/ renewals.

As to security on the site: (Word Fence information) Last month I mentioned that most of the blocked hits were from China. This month they were from the Netherlands. Always a bit interesting.

Events Report (Lori):

Upcoming events:

Urban Park Night Sky designation event
Educational Event at Ivins City Hall
Geology Hike
Music Event — Native American flutes
Star party with telescope

Previous Events:

Yoga in the Park with John Yohman, Thursday, November 20th at Upper Galoot.
Cancelled due to weather.

Desert Homes Hike with Gemma, Snow Canyon's Naturalist Aide, Friday, November 21st in Johnson Canyon. Great turn out and a success.
